Meeting Procedures & Conflict of Interest Policy: J. Biasuzzi is to ask the Town Manager for any existing policies in place.

Review of Zoning Regulations:

The existing Certificate of Occupancy language (Section 1107) was discussed further. The Zoning Administrator has suggested that C.O.'s only be mandatory for new residential housing and commercial projects (exempting sheds, decks, and other minor accessory structures. No consensus was reached and Section 1107 stays unchanged.

Continuing on a draft (Farm) Animal regulation, D. Lincoln submitted a research paper on having chickens in an urban setting. He is still seeking guidance on other types of animals. There was no decision on if Animal Control rules should be a "free-standing" ordinance, instead of a Zoning regulation. It was agreed was agreed in the March meeting to draft language, to then discuss with the Town Manager and Select Board on how proceed with adoption of this regulatory subject.

Other and Miscellaneous Business: J. Biasuzzi discussed the potential issue of the Town Plan expiring in March, if it is still on the five (5) year renewal cycle. Ed. Bove of the RRPC to attend the May meeting to discuss update work necessary.
